

Press Denana

On stage Nanna Bitsch Nielsen goes by the name: Denana.

It's POP music with a focus on polyphonic vocals, a heavy big drum, country undertones and live sound.

Denana is, in many ways, a family project where Nanna inaugurates and collaborates with family and friends about the music.

The personal and musical relationships are of the greatest importance to Nanna.

That's where the music gives meaning and comes alive.

The music is a mixture of the many genres and sounds that Nanna associates with "good music".

Most of all pop music filled with polyphony in her slightly rocked and soulful vocals.
