

FAITH JULIJA – Press information

‘City girl with a country heart’

Australian born, Faith Julija has always had a love of performing arts, and has studied various forms of dance, drama, song & music.

Singing has always been her one true love, and Faith is no stranger to the live scene. Performing and supporting various artists, from a young age, as well as being a part of various live show productions – both as lead vocalist and backup singer. Her energy, contagious smile & down to earth nature, won the hearts of many.

In 2003, Faith fell in love with country music, after visiting the Tamworth Country music festival, In Australia.

Inspired, Faith picked up a guitar and started writing her stories. Stories through songwriting, about things that meant something to her & to others. Catchy songs that displayed Faith’s playful heart, and her vivacious nature. Faith’s songwriting was acknowledged in various competitions.

Hot on the heels of her songwriting success, Faith released her debut album, Glimpse of Life, with 7 of the 10 tracks self-penned. As well as releasing her first single “It’s not fair but I don’t care” to radio, Australia wide.

The following years gave Faith an accolade of performances, awards and achievements under her belt, including:

- Finalist at the New Zealand Gold Guitar Awards
- Finalist in the NSW Champion of Champions, Australia
- Finalist for the Golden Saddle Award, Australia
- Finalist in the ‘The Toyota StarMaker Talent Search’, Australia

After a short break from the ‘lime-light’, to raise a family & dive deeper into her songwriting style, Faith is back.

Faith Julija re-released her album “Glimpse of life” in 2020. Faith’s music is once again, in high rotation on Country Music Radio, in Australia wide, plus in Europe. Including airplay in the country of her current residence, Denmark. The re-release of her music & single “Road’s in the mirror” has resulted in:

- #1 most requested song on the (ACSS) Australian Country Songwriters Show, Australia 2021
- #2 on the Top 20 Country Thunder Aussie & Kiwi Chart, Australia 2021
- #3 on the (HUM) Hear Us Music hitlist, Denmark 2020

Faith Julija has also been named as:

- One of the Top #30 most played independent artists 2020, Country Expressen, Denmark
- Album of the month “Glimpse of life” (Oct 2020) Country Action, Denmark

With plans for new releases in 2021, one can only wait in anticipation what the future holds for Faith Julija, as she continues to drum up attention, with her distinct sound, catchy lyrics and a strong personal style that is undoubtedly, Faith Julija.
