

Press: Going For The One

In the summer of 2020, the trio Going For The One was formed by guitarist, singer and composer Laura Pold, together with bass player Lise Lotte Elmelund and drummer Pernille Tonnesen. Going For The One plays original rock music, characterized by the dynamic contrast between a hard rock-core and a lightly floating and honest vocal, with catchy vocal lines. They are particularly inspired by the music scene of the 60s - 70s with bands like Led Zeppelin and Yes, which explains the name of the trio, after the English rock band Yes' eighth studio album Going For The One from 1977.

On January 15, 2021, their first single "Dear Friend" was released. The single received positive reviews from music magazines and blogs such as Bands of Tomorrow, Page 33, DiGiDi and Danish Underground Music. The single went straight to number one on the Hear Us Music charts and is played on local radios across the country.

Going For The One are releasing their next single "Great Escape" in mid-April and are ready with an entire album in the fall of 2021.
